ARTICLE 30 – SERVICE RECOGNITION DAYS

Employees may accumulate Service Recognition Days (SR Days) for volunteering to do extra-curricular supervision and/or noon supervision.

Definitions:

Extra-curricular Supervision

Extra-curricular supervision shall be defined as the voluntary time spent supervising a principal-approved extra-curricular activity with students outside of regular school hours. Extra-curricular time shall be tracked in hours.

Noon Supervision

Noon supervision shall be defined as the voluntary time spent supervising students over the period designated as lunch. Noon supervision time shall be tracked in minutes and converted to hours for the purpose of recognition.

Entitlement:

Extra-Curricular Supervision	Noon Supervision
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 25 hours of service - ½ SR Day • 50 hours of service - 1 SR Day • 75 hours of service - 1 ½ SR Days • 100 hours of service - 2 SR Days • 125 hours of service - 2 ½ SR Days • 150 hours of service - 3 SR Days • 250 hours of service - 4 SR Days Employees must meet each threshold identified above. Payment Option: For unused SR Days, or SR Days not carried forward to the following year, an employee shall be paid out at the employee's regular rate of daily pay by the end of June, of the current year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 9 hours of service - ½ Day SR Day • 18 hours of service - 1 Day SR Day • 27 hours of service - 1 ½ Days SR Days • 36 hours of service - 2 Days SR Days • 45 hours of service - 2 ½ Days SR Days • 54 hours of service - 3 Days SR Days Payment Option: Hours not converted to SR Days will be paid at the same hourly rate as negotiated in the LINC agreement. Currently, this is a rate of $20.22 per hour (pro-rated for actual number of minutes of noon supervision)

Entitlement for Days Away from Work:

A maximum of three (3) days may be earned as time away from work for supervising students at noon or during extra-curricular activities, or a combination of both. Any additional time accumulated is paid out as noted above.

Carry Forward

A maximum of two (2) unused SR Days may be carried forward to the following year.

Usage of SR Days

A maximum of five (5) SR Days may be used in any one school year.

An employee must earn all SR Days prior to using them. In special circumstances a school administrator may approve one (1) SR Day before it is fully earned and the Superintendent of Human Resources may approve a second SR Day before it is fully earned. If by June 10 of the current year the SR Day is not earned the Employee shall forfeit the employee's applicable wages, unless special approval has been granted by the school administrator based on completion of hours no later than June 30 of the current school year.

Part-time Employees

Part-time employees who use SR Days do so prorated to their FTE to a maximum of 3 Days.

Temporary Employees

Temporary employees who earn SR Days shall use them prior to the conclusion of their assignment or be paid out.

Examples of How Recognition Shall be Applied

Employees that follow the regular school calendar:

- Example 1 (Part time employee): An EA who works 0.5 FTE (equivalent to a 3 hour day) can only take three, 3 hour days as an SR Day. However, that employee has earned three, 6 hour days (because 6 hours per day equals 1.0 FTE). Therefore, when payouts are calculated if s/he took the maximum 3 days as an SR Day s/he would be paid out the remaining 3 hours for each of the 3 days, for a total of 9 hours paid out.
- Example 2 (Full time employee): An EA who works 1.0 FTE (equivalent to a 6 hour day) can only take three, 6 hour days as an SR day. There would be no payout for additional hours because that employee works, earned and used the FTE day(s).
- Example 3 (More than a full time employee): An EA who works 1.17 FTE (equivalent to a 7 hour Day) can only take three, 6 hour days as an SR Day. If a 1.17 FTE employee took 3 days off during the school year, an adjustment will be made on the June payroll to correct the overpayment. The employee would have been overpaid by 1 hour for every day taken.

Employees that follow the alternate school calendar:

- Example 1 (Part time employee): An EA who works 0.5 FTE (equivalent to 3.2 hours day) can only take three, 3.2 hour days as an SR Day. However, that employee has earned three, 6.4 hour days (because 6.4 hours per day equals 1.0 FTE). Therefore, when payouts are calculated if s/he took the maximum 3 days as an SR Day s/he would be paid out the remaining 3.2 hours for each of the 3 days, for a total of 9.6 hours paid out.
- Example 2 (Full time employee): An EA who works 1.0 FTE (equivalent to a 6.4 hour day) can only take three, 6.4 hour days as an SR Day. There would be no payout for additional hours because that employee works, earned and used the FTE day.

Re: Introduction of "School Support Worker" Classification

The parties agree to introduce a new classification to the bargaining unit on a trial basis, for the remainder of the 2021-22 school year. Upon completion of the school year, such trial will be reviewed with the possibility of extension.

The purpose of introducing a "School Support Worker" classification is to support unmet school needs, typically provided by Educational Assistants, where Educational Assistants have been offered opportunities to work, either on a casual basis or through the posting process and are not available.

School Support Workers:

- Will be selected based on experience, knowledge, skills and abilities to support the needs of children at school; and
- Will not be required to meet education requirements of Educational Assistant; and
- Will be offered casual or temporary status only; and
- Will be included in the CUPE Local 5512 bargaining unit

School Support Workers will be eligible for work in accordance with the following terms:

- Casual hours 60 working days or less previously offered to and not accepted by internal Educational Assistants; OR
- Temporary Educational Assistant positions previously posted in accordance with Article 9 Vacancies and New Positions without qualified applicants

The parties define "qualified Educational Assistants" as internal or external Educational Assistant applicants who have completed required education or who have committed to completing post-secondary education requirements, as per current Prairie South Schools Educational Assistant Job Description.

School Support Workers will have one (1) pay step, equal to Step 1 of the current Educational Assistant wage grid.
